

Dear All

When you play your game, report your scores here: <http://www.singlesleague.co.uk/page007.html>

If you have anything to say you can say it here:

<http://www.badders.com/forum/forumdisplay.html?f=8&s=> (you will need to register)

Attached is a copy of the league sheet (to find your league click on the tab at the bottom that run along the spreadsheet) along with a copy of everyones contact details that they have provided. For those that have not provided a mobile number please do so as it is easier to text someone to arrange than e-mail as responses are delayed.

Ian Nixon is a guest player by request for one month only, his results will be excluded from league 1

As people were adding themselves right up to the deadline for the month the leagues towards the ends might be a bit off; we are going to use the following month in order to look at scores and see if anyone is in the wrong league. Becasue of this there may be some changes based on that information as the leaguess were constructed on the information that you provided, if you did not reply to that mail we cannot put you in the most suitable league.

Now go get in touch with the people in your league and get your games played, good luck.
