

Good Morning Everyone

As the league comes to another rotation we have made the decision that we are not going to continually chase for admin fees. In fact this is the last reminder that we will send

We have sent out the same mails to everyone and also updated the site accordingly so that everyone knows that they are due and what the amount is, we have had to extend the deadline in order to give everyone a fair chance to have the same notice as some of our earlier e-mails look to have been lost in spam or junk folders.

The deadline for Admin fee payment is the 31st of this month (next Friday) and the fee is £10.00 per year. You can either pay by cash (leaving it in a sealed envelope in the Cockburn Centre with your name inside) or by PayPal via the site.

Kind Regards,
